

Lubov Arnold Conference Scholarship Application

How to apply: The Lubov Arnold Conference Scholarship application is accepted on a rolling basis. The applicant must submit this application with required materials at least 60 days prior to the first day of the conference.

Eligibility: Must currently work as an oncology nurse or physician assistant in Minnesota.

Application requirements: The following items must be electronically submitted to Kate Micek at kmicek@mnovarian.org at least 60 days prior to the start of the conference.

- Contact information (your name, title, organization, email, phone number and address)
- Conference information (conference title, dates, and location)
- Resume or CV
- Letter of support from director supervisor indicating that the applicant is approved for time off to attend the specific conference noted in the application
- Budget details for each of the following categories:
 - Total amount of requested funds:
 - Transportation (mode, destination and approx. cost):
 - Conference registration fee
 - Lodging
 - Per diem
- Answers to the following:
 - Why are you interested in attending this conference?
 - Briefly describe the care you provide to women with ovarian cancer. Include the percent of time you provide direct patient care to women with ovarian cancer.
 - How will attending this conference enhance the quality of care you provide to women with ovarian cancer?
 - If you are awarded a scholarship, MOCA will expect you to share what you have learned with your colleagues who also care for women with ovarian cancer. How will you do this?

Notification of funding decision: MOCA will notify the applicant within 3 weeks of receiving the above application.

If you have questions, please email Kate Micek at kmicek@mnovarian.org.